Dance at the Plesanton.

The dance given last Saturday night at the Plesanton by Mrs. Mary Gunn and Miss White was a delightful and very interesting affair. Many Honolulu people had not seen the Tango or any of the new dances before and were particularly anxious to witness the exhibition given before the dance by the two hostesses. General surprise was expressed by most of the uninitiated over the Tango, most of them having expected a ragsop of some kind. In reality the Tango is a South American folk dance and is as graceful as the old-fashioned minuet without the least suggestion of a rag. Mrs. Gunn and Miss White also gave exhibitions of the Hesitation waltz, Manhattan glide, the one-step, the College Boston, the Tango two-step and the Panama Rose, the last named being the only dance that hinted of ragtime. After this enjoyable performance the guests joined in the dancing, most of them patterning their steps after the graceful dances that had gone before. Among those present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis, Major and Mrs. D. B. Case, Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sneydy, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur B. Owens, Mrs. Lella B. Hedges, Mr. Walter Hedges, Mr. Carruthers, Mr. Albert Clark, Miss Betty Case, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Frear, Miss Jessie Smith, Miss Maude Jones, Miss Emilie Eleanor Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lansing, Miss Florence Hoffmann, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kendall, Miss Marie Mann, Miss Edna Mann, Mrs. Nann, Mr. Oliver Lansing, Lieut. W. Rose, Lieut. R. Tilton, Lieut. N. Campanella, Lieut. V. V. Enyart, Lieut. Taylor, Mrs. H. M. Hepburn, Miss Marie O'Brien, Mr. Harry Hoffman, Mr. Stanley Kennedy, Mr. Fred Wichman, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Ruth Soper, Mr. Guy Buttolph, Lieut. Carl Hardigs, Mr. Walter Marshall, Miss Genevieve Bradley, Miss Christiana Bradley, Mr. William Foster, Mr. Heath, Mr. P. J. McCullough, Mrs. Mann, Mrs. S. Hommedieu and many others.

Mrs. Ernest Mott-Smith entertained informally last week in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. James B. Thomas of Rochester. The affair was a picnic luncheon at Wai'alae, twenty-five guests—old friends of Mrs. Thomas—being invited.

Mrs. H. F. Stewart of Los Angeles was an arrival on the Sonoma Monday morning. Mrs. Stewart will be the house guest of the Princess Kawananakoa for several weeks, the two having been close friends since their school days in California. Mrs. Stewart is a prominent figure of the Los Angeles smart set. Her husband is the vice-president of the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Los Angeles, and the two of them occupy an enviable prestige both socially and in a business way. There will undoubtedly be considerable entertaining for Mrs. Stewart during her visit in Honolulu, as aside from the charming princess, she has many friends here who are anxious to extend hospitality to the visitor from Los Angeles. Next Tuesday the princess is giving a large reception at which she and Mrs. Emmet May will be the complimented guests. A number of smaller affairs have already been given in their honor.

Mrs. Harold Dillingham returned to Honolulu on the Wilhelmina yesterday. Mrs. Dillingham has been away several months touring the United States and Canada with her husband, who returned a fortnight ago. While in San Francisco, Mrs. Dillingham was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Baldwin Wood, and was extensively entertained. As Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith, Mrs. Dillingham formerly occupied a prominent place in San Francisco society. Her return—even for so short a time—to the Bay city was hailed with delight by her many friends, each of whom strove to outdo the other in extending hospitality to their former co-spirit.

The Rev. John Wadman was a home-coming passenger on the Wilhelmina yesterday after several months in the eastern states.

A prominent couple at the Tahoe Tavern are Judge Charles Clemons and his charming wife, of Honolulu. Mr. Clemons is the United States federal judge stationed at Honolulu, and aside from having been a distinguished graduate of Yale bears the distinction of being the youngest federal judge. Judge and Mrs. Clemons, after a short stay at Tahoe, will leave for an extended tour of the Northwest and Canadian points.

Among the arrivals on the Wilhelmina yesterday morning was Mr. William A. C. Zeff, who will be married to Miss Gemma Wadman of Honolulu on the 20th of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Welch, and their two small daughters are so delighted with country life at San Mateo that they have about decided to remain in the country this winter. Mrs. Welch, who was seriously ill in the spring has not entirely recovered. She has been entertaining informally at a number of luncheon parties this month.

Miss Carol Tripp, a popular young debutante of San Francisco, arrived in Honolulu on the Sonoma Monday morning, to be the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lansing. Mrs. Lansing has postponed her own visit to the coast, her friends will be delighted to learn. She will probably return with Miss Tripp in October, after the latter has thoroughly seen the islands.

The San Francisco Chronicle has the following interesting clipping about Mrs. Hedges, a prominent society woman of California, who is sojourning at the Plesanton after a delightful trip to the Orient:

Letters from Tsingtau, China, tell of the delightful sojourn which Mrs. E. Walton Hedges is enjoying in the Orient. Mrs. Hedges left California in the early spring, and has since been touring the Philippine Islands, Japan and now China, where she expects to remain some time. She is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Frederick Schuetter, the latter of whom was Mrs. Marguerite Hartford, of this city.

On the completion of a month's visit at the Schuetter home, Mrs. Hedges will return to Japan to be present at the chrysanthemum festival. Mrs. Hedges is undecided whether to return to San Francisco, or to go to Paris on the conclusion of her sojourn in the Orient. She writes enthusiastically of the good times she is having and, now that her health, which was a matter of anxiety to her family and friends last winter, is completely restored, she is able to enter fully into the gay life of the east. Walton Hedges accompanied his mother on her sojourn.

A marriage of interest to Honoluluans, that will take place next month in Santa Rosa, is that of Miss Helen Stuart McMeans and Ensign Hollis Conner, U. S. N. Miss McMeans met her future husband in Honolulu last year, during the visit of the Pacific fleet, when she was the guest of

YOUR HAIR IS FLUFFY, BEAUTIFUL AND LUSTROUS IN A FEW MOMENTS

Girls! Get a 25-cent Bottle of "Danderine" and Try This. Also Stops Falling Hair; Destroys Dandruff

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it—advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wall and their little daughter, Roselle, are expected home again by the next Sierra. Mrs. Wall has been away for five or six months now, having gone up to California during the early part of February to be present at the wedding of her sister, Miss Grace Davis, to Mr. Guilford Whitney of Honolulu. Mrs. Wall accompanied by Roselle, spent considerable time at Castle Crags and other mountain resorts, being joined later by Mr. Wall who had been detained in Honolulu by business. They have been the occasion for a great deal of entertaining, formal and otherwise, by their many friends in San Francisco, Berkeley and Modesto. It is with great pleasure, however, that Honolulu people hear of their prospective return on the 18th.

Among the welcome additions to the Menlo set are Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Scott, who have an artistic bungalow near Woodside. Mrs. Scott before her marriage three years ago was Miss Ethel Amweg, an Eastern girl who came here after several years' sojourn in Honolulu with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Amweg. She is an extremely clever woman and under a pseudonym has had stories in some of the best Eastern magazines. Mrs. Samuel Hopkins and Miss Enid Gregg are friends of hers, in fact Mrs. Hopkins, when she was Miss Elyse Schultz, was one of the bridesmaids at her wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. John Waterhouse who have been spending several weeks in Oakland as the guest of the latter's mother, Mrs. W. Alexander, returned yesterday on the Wilhelmina. They will join their family who are on Tantalus, later moving to their beach home at Kahala.

Mr. Theodore Lansing returned Monday on the Sonoma after several months in the east. Mrs. Lansing sailed this month for Europe where she will spend the rest of the year.

spending a few weeks enjoying the cool sea air. Prior to the marriage of the former to Mr. Edward Dekum which will occur next Tuesday, Miss Blair and Miss Lucas will stop at the Young Hotel. The wedding will be one of the most interesting social events of next week, and many of the out-of-town folk are planning to motor in for it. Speaking of the engagement which was announced in June, the Portland Sunday Journal of July 6th says as follows:

Word has been received from Honolulu announcing the engagement of Edward Dekum, a former Portland man of the well known Portland family of that name, a brother of Adolph and Frank Dekum of this city, to Miss A. Gwendolyn Blair of Honolulu. The wedding will take place August 12, at St. Andrew's Cathedral. Mr. Dekum has many friends in the city, though he has resided in the islands for a number of years, and his engagement has been heard here with much interest.

Mrs. C. B. Cooper and her three charming children who have been spending the past five weeks at the Volcano, returned yesterday on the Mauna Kea from Hawaii.

Mrs. Zeno K. Myers returned to Honolulu yesterday after several months on the mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Waterhouse who have been spending several weeks in Oakland as the guest of the latter's mother, Mrs. W. Alexander, returned yesterday on the Wilhelmina. They will join their family who are on Tantalus, later moving to their beach home at Kahala.

Mr. Theodore Lansing returned Monday on the Sonoma after several months in the east. Mrs. Lansing sailed this month for Europe where she will spend the rest of the year.

Fuchsias, salvias, geraniums, Shasta daisies, begonias, sprigged, smilax and many, many others; also strawberry plants now ready. Mrs. Taylor, 155 Hotel St., Tel. 2339, or Nuuanu Valley Nurseries—advertisement.

A confectioner in Peckham Rye, England, made a cake which weighed one and a quarter tons, or 2,400 pounds. The cake was not baked in one piece. It was built up of large wedges of cake, each baked separately, and they were built in eleven tiers on the plan of a bridal cake. It occupied six men for a whole baker's day to build the cake and put the sugar icing around it. To make it and bake it five men were busily employed for four days. The almond paste around the cake weighed 800 pounds and the sugar coating or icing weighed 200 pounds.
